FONTAINE-FOURCHES FRANCE

In the lovely farmhouse residence of Kippy Hammond and her husband, Jerome Henriquez, you will experience the local flavors of France that are not evident in the usual tourist tours of the region. Lovely in-home dinners, restaurant outings, picnics in the countryside, lazy evenings around the fire, unlimited studio access, taking the model inside and out to get the full effect of the French flavor of light and color---

THIS is the full artist's experience....painting the figure, the portrait, landscape and still life French Style. La Bonne Etoile Artist Retreat will wrap its magic around you, enchanting and inspiring you for a memorable two weeks or twelve days of painting delight.

This particular region of France, while a very big French tourism destination, isn't as highly visited by English speaking tourists, so, guides will be added to our group from time to time. The cities chosen are not so large that anyone who chooses to slip away and wander will not feel intimidated.

Whether you return to the states exhausted, having taken part in every class, excursion, and every extra minute in the studio or balance your stay with rest and relaxation as top priority, our hopes are that you leave La Bonne Etoile inspired. Inspired in your art and your spirit, having acquired new skills in creativity and foreign travel

Just a few of the highlights for your trip:

Paris - This one-day excursion is to try and give you a few bearings and “land legs” for future trips to Paris. A visit to the Musee d’Orsay is always a highlight as is just walking the streets of the most beautiful city on the world.

Provins - The ancient fortified city of Provins sits atop a ridge overlooking the Seine valley and the Champagne chalklands, roughly equidistant from both Paris and Troyes. The town has a famous outline, dominated by a tower and the dome of Eglise St-Quiriace. Provins’ role as an important center of commerce was confirmed in the 12C when it became one of the two capitals of the County of Champagne.

Troyes - is a charming, medieval city. We will begin the day with a guided walking tour with an English-speaking tour guide. You have a choice to explore the numerous museums and churches in the ancient city or to sketch within helping distance of the instructor.

Sens - This rather small town was important well before Caesar came to Gaul. The Cathedral St-Etienne is Sens’ outstanding glory. Begun before 1140 it is the oldest of the great Gothic cathedrals and the attached museum houses the most outstanding Gallo-Roman collection in France.

Group choice between the Château de Fontainebleau or Château de Vaux le Vicomte - This beautiful château is the precursor of Versailles and is a favorite of those that know French history. Rick Steves rates it in the top ten of the most underrated sites in Europe. We will continue our day to Moret sur Loing where Thomas Sisley painted..

French cuisine – Chef Marc Bost will be returning for the fourth year to make every meal a real treat during your stay.

Brocantiing -During the summer months, France’s countryside is filled with local festivals and small brocantes. These are a combination flea market/ garage sale/ festival with a mixture of local citizens and professional merchants. Going to the brocantes every weekend seems to be a French tradition; you will see Parisians out for the weekend and locals, all looking for the treasures to be found. This is a real treat that is always a hit with Americans though probably not on any tours.

Market Day -The weekly market in Bray-sur-Seine will be scheduled for those that would like to browse and take pictures. This particular market is a real treat, even for those familiar with European open-air markets.
